This afternoon Jeffrey came over. It was so great seeing him. It was such a nice day for me.

I'm optimistic and excited to hopefully get to meet with a neurosurgeon at the U tomorrow or maybe by Tuesday. Hope to come after that appointment.

I only said, "I want to be let alone!"

I hate the waiting the U Neurosurgery did for a call back regarding better last night so feel 5:10 Still no word from the office about scheduling surgery and accepted the date of may cancel. But they are date scheduled. So hope borrow and can make I'm starting to get headache and my other symptoms seem like and I took the MRI to the U and of course already knew.
