Well the fun just continues. Mike and Deb just left this morning after a wonderful visit for my birthday. We had such a fun time and yesterday, my 57th birthday, was a day I'll never forget. After receiving beautiful flowers from my husband, and ~~my~~<sup>from</sup> Lukas & Kris, and many happy birthday wishes from friends, Mike and Deb presented me a DVD created by my brothers, my in-laws, Deb, Jim, <sup>from</sup> and Heidi & Mike Mook. It was a touching, hysterically funny, recreation of our childhood. I laughed so hard, I cried, and was deeply moved by the memories captured. I'm sure I'll watch it many more times. I hope it gets played at my memorial gathering so all can see what an incredible family I have.

Last night Mike & Deb took us out to dinner at Yak & Yeti's, which was delicious.

This was truly one of my best birthdays ever...!!!
