

neighbourhood, which is by the river looking out at the George Washington Bridge. By 10:00 we were heading back to Delmar for a few hours by the pool before going to the airport. Again, another beautiful day. We left NY at 6:30 pm after a very full, very wonderful 4 days with my amazing brothers, their spouses and incredible friends. I will never never forget it. Deb presented me with a great photo/escape book of the party, the garden and the week.

Just when I thought it was all over and was sitting on the couch recovering, feeling a little sad, at 3:00 the front door opens and in runs Nash with Lukas & Kristin close behind. Mike knew they were coming but I had no idea. What a wonderful surprise on the heels of a such a great week.

Lukas has an interview for a job on Tuesday which I'm really hoping is a good match for him. It is with Vail Resorts and would mean he could relocate to Breckenridge. I can only hope it works out. I'd love to have him closer but certainly understand if he decides to take a different job in Albuquerque.

Anyway - we had a fun evening and on Friday we went to Red Rocks to work out.

Fri June 20th

After our work out I was told that Jeff, Alison, Sam, Ansley, Elliot and Angie (Jeff's friend) were coming to the house for dinner. How great to end this week with our children and granddaughters. [Oh yeah - Luke, Kristin, Mike & I went to a Rockies game on Sat to boot!] This is truly a week I'll never forget!
